SANCTIONS
FOR LEVEL 1 AND LEVEL 2 CASE CLASSIFICATIONS

LEVEL 2

REPRIMAND
Disciplinary reprimand is an official warning from the University.

PROBATION
Conduct probation is more serious than disciplinary reprimand. During conduct probation, students must demonstrate the ability to follow the Code of Conduct.

DEFERRED SUSPENSION
Deferred suspension is one of the most serious outcomes of a level 2 violation. This is a period time where a student must demonstrate their ability to follow the code of conduct; failure to do so may result in suspension from the University.

EDUCATIONAL
Educational sanctions are assignments such as assessments, training, reflections, projects, etc. that are focused on helping the student learn from the violation.

RESTITUTION
Restitution is a requirement to pay damages. Level 2 cases cannot exceed $1000, Level 1 cases can be sanctioned restitution above $1000.

LEVEL 1

LEVEL 2 SANCTIONS
All level 2 sanctions are permissible in a level 1 case.

ADMISSION REVOCATION
Students who are admitted but not yet in attendance are expected to abide by the Code of Conduct; failure to do so could result in a revocation of admission.

LONG TERM LIMITATION
Long term limitation prohibits a student from participating in certain activities or programs on campus and/or accessing specific areas of campus.

SUSPENSION/EXPULSION
The most severe sanction a student can receive is suspension or expulsion from the institution. Suspensions can be a defined length (i.e. two years) or indefinite (undefined length). After a period of time, students who are suspended can apply for reinstatement. Students who are expelled from the University are not permitted to return.

TRANSCRIPT NOTATION
When a student is sanctioned with an expulsion, suspension or revocation of admission, a notation will be placed on the student’s official transcript.
